Testimonial

"I had the privilege of working with Naomi as a coworker, and as a candidate. Naomi's professionalism in both capacities is bar none. As a coworker she was collaborative, helpful, and a perfect culture fit. Working with her as a candidate, she kept me informed every step of the way, and guided me through every step of the hiring process. I knew she was batting for me, and that's important for building trust between candidate and recruiter. I would highly recommend Naomi for anyone looking for their next position in the IT field."
